TEAM CAPTAINS AND MANAGERS IN CONFERENCE ON DETAIL

Fifty Men, Active Leaders in
Y. M. C. A. Campaign
Gather in First Meeting at Second Street Headquarters.

ESTABLISHMENT IN WORKING ORDER TODAY

Captains Will Work Each Evening on Assigning of Names of Those to Be Asked to Contribute.

Two captains, absent last night
at the first meeting of the Y. M.
C. A. soliciting organization, returned today and the meeting tonight will find every captain on the job.

A big squad of men and boys
today is engaged in putting a Y.
M. C. A. pennant in every window and on every automobile in Albuquerque.

Automobiles for the use of the
soliciting squads have been secured and assigned; one car to each team, to be on duty 24
hours a day if necessary.

Nearly $200 worth of postage
stamps were used at headquarters today in sending out circulars, letters and bouquets. Twenty-five people were at work on the job.

Five hundred people visited
the headquarters at 118 North Second street today. All are cordially invited to call.

A window display is being arranged for Central avenue which will show exteriors and interiors
of many Y. M. C. A. buildings
throughout the country.

The general committee and all
team captains will meet each evening of this week at headquarters.

The real work of the campaign
preparations practically was concluded on the end in sight, this afternoon.

Fifty enthusiastic Y. M. C. A.
workers, including all but two of the soliciting team captains and members of the general committee, held the first meeting in the new Y. M. C. A.
headquarters at 118 North Second street last night, when with the card
index system in full working order
and the list of prospective contributors fairly complete, the actual work
of assigning names to the captains of the twenty-four teams began. The work proceeded rapidly, under the experienced guidance of Secretary S.
Bilheimer, but meetings tonight
tomorrow and probably Saturday night will be necessary to complete the work.

Two of the team captains were out of town last night. The others were present, as were all of the general committee except Chairman M. E.
Hickey, who also was out of town. In
Mr. Hickey's absence Vice Chairman Putney has established a desk and office in the headquarters and there he proposes to stay until the end of the campaign.

The detail work of the campaign
preparation proceeded yesterday with dispatch. The publicity and solici-tating departments, the commissary, in which ladies of the several churches will have charge, arrangements for the opening of the campaign in the churches Sunday and for the dinner
in Masonic Temple Monday night
were completed.

International Secretary Bilheimer,
whose experience in similar work has been gained in campaigns all over the United States, expressed himself
last night as thoroughly satisfied
with the enthusiasm apparent behind
the movement in Albuquerque for the Y. M. C. A. building, and a sentiment which he says means certain success.

WHAT OTHER CITIES HAVE DONE IN Y. M. C. A. CONSTRUCTION

Albuquerque is ready for a Y. M. C. A., and is in a position to supply one. The population and the wealth is here for the sustaining of such an institution. The present generation demands it, and the city needs it. These are but logical conclusions, reached after an investigation of other cities in the west and southwest that have already built for themselves such institutions.

Or the cities in the United States, having a population of 16,000 or over, 75 per cent of them are supporting Y. M. C. A.'s. Many cities of six and eight thousand population have fine buildings and large memberships. Some cities the size of Albuquerque have two organizations where conditions demand them, as in Boulder, Colorado, where the college has a separate organization from the town Y. M. C. A.

Colorado has a number of five organizations in cities smaller than Albuquerque. Elsewhere we show the building at Grand Junction, which was built at a cost of $16,000 of a trifle more than the local organization is working to secure. In Grand Junction there is an active membership of about 700 men and boys and the association is in a flourishing condition. The campaign to secure funds in Grand Junction was one of the easiest he has ever conducted, says International Secretary Bilheimer for the reason that it was considered by the people of the city as ready for a Y. M. C. A. and able to build and support one.

In this list of twelve western cities with populations ranging from seven to forty-five thousand there are only two with populations larger than Albuquerque. This should demonstrate conclusively that this city is ready for a Y. M. C. A. and able to build and support one.

There are a few conditions peculiar to our city which argue for a large and successful association here. When there is found a large number of railroad employees the associations have large and active memberships, as the railroad boys are fond of making the Y. M. C. A. their hang-out place when off duty. With the number of railroad men already here and in view of the increase expected with the completion of the new stage the railroad membership in Albuquerque should number into the hundreds.

Certain conditions make for a dearth of popular amusements in this city. The Y. M. C. A. will supply this need to some extent for the boys and girls and will through its athletic teams bring its gymnasium afford opportunities for the enjoyment of popular sports never before known in Albuquerque.

In this regard we should not lose sight of the real value the Y. M. C. A. will be to the university and therefore the city. Athletic development at the state institution has been slow for the reason that competition has not been keen enough and because there is no well equipped and large gymnasium where the university teams can train.

The Y. M. C. A. will be a real adjunct to the university and will supply this very apparent need. It should induce a larger attendance because of the added privileges that will be offered in athletic branches.

International Secretary Bilheimer, after carefully going over the local situation, has said that this city will without doubt support a Y. M. C. A. with a membership of six hundred. This, he says, is a conservative estimate based upon other cities in the southwest where conditions are the same. Such a membership would keep a $75,000 plant flourishing and active.

International Secretary Bilheimer, whose experience in similar work has been gained in campaigns all over the United States, expressed himself last night as thoroughly satisfied with the enthusiasm apparent behind the movement in Albuquerque for the Y. M. C. A. building, and a sentiment which he says means certain success.

ed for pilaging the German embassy here at the beginning of the war have been allowed to go free.

The examining judge decided that they had committed the outrage from motives entirely patriotic and not for the love of plunder.

The paper further reports that the officer in charge of the embassy, Court Councillor Kaiser whom the mob had murdered, was not killed at the time the embassy was being pilaged, but that he was murdered several days afterward.

HERNANDEZ GETS A PLURALITY OF 4,000 VOTES IN STATE

Complete Returns Not in as Yet, and Probably Will Not Be Final and Definite Before Saturday Afternoon.

WILLIAMS FALLS FAR BEHIND HIS TICKET

Republicans Will Have Majority of Twelve in Lower House of the Legislature on Latest Figures.

B. C. Hernandez, the Republican candidate for congress, has been elected by a 4,000 majority. This is the opinion of those who have canvassed the official returns available at Santa Fe, and who are in the best position to estimate the missing precincts. Returns from none of the counties were complete at noon today on all members of the state and legislative tickets. Far enough to show that the examining officer was in hand to show that cost of the election was low and that Hernandez probably would have over 4,000 plurality since Mr. Ferguson son.

Williams, for the corporation commission, is elected by less than 1,000 majority. He can far behind his ticket, practically throughout the state while in the northern part Bill, the Democratic candidate ran ahead of his ticket.

Detailed figures probably will not be available before Sunday afternoon and any addition to the table of county returns on the congressman published by the Herald yesterday afternoon would be little more than speculation.

REPUBLICANS HAVE TWELVE MAJORITY IN LEGISLATURE

The Republican claim of a two-thirds majority in the legislature is incorrect. They have a majority of 12 as the returns appear today, with 18 Democrats, 39 Republicans and one Socialist. The Socialist is W. C. Thorp, whose election is claimed in Curry county and who is the first member of his party to hold a seat in a New Mexico legislature; in the event that his election proves correct.

Best information available this afternoon on the legislature shows that it stands as follows:

GERMAN CHILDREN WANT CANONS

Essen Oct. 25.—Like the other children of Germany are very much interested in the war, and all over the empire they were often playing at soldiers. A boy in Henrichenburg-Aachen, sent the following letter to the big Krupp works there:

Dear Mr. Krupp: We boys in this warlike</
